TWO PRONGED 'TWEEKIE' ASSAULT ON THE TABLE TOP

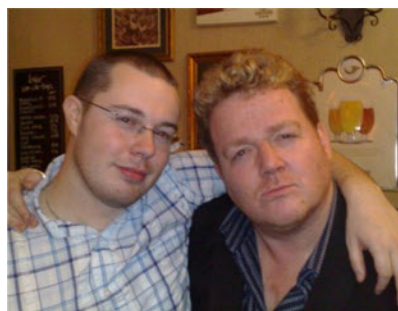

WELL March is with us and yet another person is sitting top of the table. 'MISS TWEEKIE' has A single point lead over 'GOZO KING' (Terry Gregory) and then TWEEKIE himself (Keith Haskett) is third, ahead on the tie break from last month's leader, CHRIS SMITH. Next are 5 people level on 56 points: ARNIE & BEAR, 'DUTCH' HOLLAND, BRIAN WILLIAMS, CENK SELIM and DAVE RODERICKS. DR. CRAB EYES (Kirsty Baxter) is holding the last prize place at present. Just outside the prizes are TOTTENHAM FOPSPURS and CAMPBELL HOTSPURS will They 'flatter to deceive' just like the real thing. CHINGFORD O's (Brian Edwards), STEVEN FIFE, TOM BAXTER, JAMES NICHOLS, JOHN HAMMOND, JOE LYNCH and TONY KITE are all in with a shout on 52 points. But apart from the top places a meagre 9 points separates 3rd to 45 position.

Terry Gregory

Brian Williams

Arnie & Bear

Kirsty Baxter

The Carling cup points have been added into the totals, so the benefit of having good, Cup selections is being highlighted for a serious challenge for the title.

So down with the strugglers and GARY AIZEN is still down among the dead men with 32 Points, KEVIN TOMLIN on 29, THE FAT CONTROLLER (Jake Wylie) has 28, BAKERBOY XXX Has 26 and STEVE WHITE on 18. So to the Spoon battle, THE REV SPOONER has -14, PETER (I'm putting me pennies away) SULLIVAN on -19, PAUL WHITE on -22 and IF ONLY on -23. So it seems as much effort to lose is being put in by some, as others put in to win! Still a long way to go yet, and a few 'Portsmouth's' and 'Chester's to chuck a spanner in the work's as well.

Keith Alexander

Macclesfield manager Keith Alexander died this week aged 53. He was well respected In football circles and passionate about the game. He became the first permanent black Manager in the league and took Lincoln City to promotion. He had been suffering health Problems since 2003. RIP Keith you were one of the good guys.....

IN THE IN BOX

Q. What's the difference between a Spurs fan and a coconut?

A. You can get a drink out of a coconut!

Liverpool have apparently set up a call centre for fans who are troubled by their current form. The number is 0800 10 10 10. Calls charged at peak rate for overseas users. Once again the number is: 0800 won nothing won nothing won nothing.

Dave the Scouser is touring America on holiday and stops in a remote bar in the hills of Nevada. He's chatting to the barman when he spies an old Indian sitting in a corner-complete with full tribal gear, long plaits and wrinkles.

"Who's he?" asks Dave. "That's the Memory Man," says the barman.

"He knows everything. He can remember any fact. Go and try him out."

So Dave wanders over and asks: "Who won the 1965 FA Cup Final?" "Liverpool," replies the Memory Man. The tourist is amazed. "Who did they beat?" "Leeds," comes the reply.

"And the score?" "2-1." Dave tries something more specific.

"Who scored the winning goal?" The Indian does not even blink: "Ian St John."

The Liverpoolian returns home and regales his relatives and friends with his tale, and he's determined to return and pay his respects to this amazing man.

Ten years later he has saved enough money and returns to America. After weeks of searching through the towns of Nevada, Dave finds the Memory Man in a cave in the mountains.

The Scouser steps forward, bows and greets the Indian in his traditional native tongue: "How."

The Memory Man squints at him and says: "Diving header in the six-yard box."

Q: How do you define 144 Chelsea fans

A: Gross Stupidity

A Bloke walks into a bric-a-brac shop and sees an ornamental brass rat, the sort of thing women of a certain age love to put on the mantle piece. He thinks "that'll be perfect for his Mother's birthday", so he asks the shopkeeper how much it is. "£25 for the rat, £100 for the story", replies the man. "Forget the story" says the bloke, and so buys the rat for 25 quid. He walks off down the road, but has not gone 30 yards when a rat comes up from the gutter and starts to follow him. Soon more arrive, and in a few minutes the whole street is a sea of rats, all following the bloke, who keeps walking until he comes to a cliff. He throws the brass rat over, and millions of rats follow, one after each other, plunging to certain death. The bloke then runs back to shop.....

"Aaaah", says the shop keeper, "you'll be back for the story"

"Screw the story - do you have a brass man utd fan?"

A container holding 5,000 Southend tops was returned to Roots Hall today by the people of Haiti. Attached was a note saying "We have no homes, no food and no water but we still have our dignity."

Top tip for Manchester United fans: don't waste money on expensive new kits every season. Simply strap a large inflatable penis to your forehead, and everyone will immediately know which team you support.

CUP UPDATE

THE CARLING CUP

SAME OLD FERGUSON 'FEAR FACTOR' GIVES UNITED THE CARLING CUP

Sir Alex managed to get into referee Phil Dowd's head in the lead up to the final saying about "how many United players he had sent off in the past" That must have played on Dowd's mind as there can be no other Explanation why Nemanja Vidic didn't get his marching orders when conceding the 5th minute penalty at Wembley. Vidic was the last man and the law clearly states he should have gone. Martin O'Neill was fuming and rightly so, but it only goes to illustrate what we all know 'its one rule for United and one for everybody else'. There's nothing to suggest that United wouldn't have still have won with 10 men, but that's how it should have been. The only bright point to come out of United's 2-1 win is the form of Wayne Rooney with the World cup looming.

So to points gained and the 'winners' seemed to be Tottenham Fospurs who picked up 6 Points and Sola Adeniji who scored 5 points. Quite a few people picked up 4 points and They include: Miss Tweekie, Tweekie, Dr. Crab Eyes, Chingford O's, Tony Kite, I'll Get It, Kevin Isles, MoTheO, David Haymes, Richard Mills and a few others.

CHESTER CITY EXPELLED FROM CONFERENCE

AS Chester City's devastated fans face up to the realisation that they no longer have a team to support after 125 years of proud history, the question every heartbroken supporter wants answering is simple: What happens next? It was Chester's fellow Conference clubs who delivered the fatal blow by voting to kick them out, but only after the league's board recommended that they do so. Conference general manager Dennis Strudwick last night confirmed that no-one from the club had been in touch with the league, and given the fact that not a single City official bothered to show up to the meeting that sealed the club's fate, an appeal would appear unlikely. It has become patently clear that the authority, who are the landlords of the Deva, have lost patience with Chester City 2004 Ltd, who are understood to be behind in rent payments to the tune of £18,000.

A council spokesperson said: "We are taking advice to get the immediate return of the ground." Chester were handed a 25-point penalty after falling into administration last summer and were 33 points adrift of safety. Gateshead were the only side to lose twice against Chester while Cambridge United and Tamworth will lose their six points for doing the double over the former Football League club. So it appears Chester's record will be expunged and anyone Who has chosen Chester will lose the selection. Frank has posted a link on the web site if Anyone wants to check out the situation.
